Delve into the latest thinking on how leaders and churches can be more effective in moving people forward toward full, Christ-centered devotion.

Designed for ministry leaders who want to maintain a strong, healthy soul—knowing that this is foundational to effectively lead others.

This course addresses the critical nature of a leader's role in shaping a strong internal ministry culture catalytic for spiritual transformation.

Designed by Dr. Henry Cloud, this course will help leaders focus on two areas of leadership: Results that matter, and how personal makeup is the key to getting those results.

Designed for every church leader and core volunteer who wants to help their church more effectively become the hope of the world.

Through a series of four courses, participants experience an impactful journey of personal development, and gain tools for more effective leadership.
